A PRIVATE SCHOOL EDUCATION AT A PUBLIC UNIVERSITY PRICE...

ANNA MARIA COLLEGE works to make higher education accessible and affordable for everyone. It is why we are a favorite among students and parents. All accepted students receive a merit scholarship of up to $26,000 based on their cumulative grade point average; students may also be eligible for additional need-based aid. The total financial aid package makes the cost of an Anna Maria education comparable to that of a state university. We also provide highly personalized assistance to help families with the often-overwhelming financial aid process.

To learn more, contact the Financial Aid Office at (508) 849-3366 or financialaid@annamaria.edu.

To be eligible for need-based financial aid, submit the FAFSA
(Free Application for Federal Student Aid, code number 002117).
The preferred deadline for submission is March 1.

Submit your FAFSA by March 1 and $500 will be added to your financial aid award.

With more than 25 clubs and organizations on campus, you can explore what interests you.

Making An Impact
Everyday Anna Maria graduates use their talents to help make the world a better place.

ANNETTE NANCE-HOLT '18G is the first woman and first African American woman to serve as fire commissioner of the Chicago Fire Department. She holds a Master of Science in Public Administration in Fire and Emergency Services.

Social Work major MICHAEL GORMAN '15 is a clinician at Habit OPCO Lowell Treatment Center, a methadone clinic that serves 1,300 clients. He also founded The Movement Family, a community service program serving people's basic needs.

BRITTANY COOK '19 is a production assistant at Warner Brothers Studios, Avalanche Division. She pursued a self-designed major in Media Writing and Communications, which allowed her to follow her passion of telling stories through media.

THANASI CHRISTOFOROU '14 is a Criminal Justice major who participated in Anna Maria College's Washington Center Internship Program and later put his skills to work at the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) Washington.

>>> WE'RE HERE TO HELP. Please reach out to the Admission team by email at admission@annamaria.edu, or call (508) 849-3360.

At Anna Maria, Forensic Criminology goes beyond DNA and dives into the legal aspect of crimes, human behaviors, and all the analytics and techniques used while solving a crime.

Transfer Admission Decision and Credit Evaluation

APPLY NOW

To apply, please submit the following:

1. Admission application: either the Common App or Anna Maria's online application at annamaria.edu/admission/transfer
2. A $25 application fee (may be waived for eligible students)
3. Official transcripts from your high school (or GED/HiSet results) and all colleges/universities attended

What credits will transfer?

We typically grant credits for college courses taken at a regionally accredited institution and comparable to those we offer, with up to 75 credits accepted for students without a previously earned bachelor's degree and up to 90 credits for students pursuing a second bachelor's degree. For most courses a grade of C- or better is required for the credits to transfer. Bring your transcripts to our Office of Admission and we will give you an on-the-spot evaluation.

International Students

International students are a uniquely valuable part of our community, enriching our academic and social life with a global perspective. For more information on transferring as an international student, please contact the Office of Admission at (508) 849-3360 or admission@annamaria.edu.
