

Campus Ministry Weekly Update

April 11, 2022

"This day shall be a memorial feast for you, which all your generations shall celebrate with pilgrimage to the LORD, as a perpetual institution."

Exodus 12:14

"He will provide the way and the means, such as you could never have imagined. Leave it all to Him, let go of yourself. Lose yourself on the Cross, and you will find yourself entirely."

- St. Catherine of Siena

Blessed Holy Week!

This week we highlight St. Bernadette whose feast day is Holy Saturday. She is the patron saint of those ridiculed for their faith. How can her prayers and life strengthen you as you walk through this Holy Week? Jesus let the mockery, desertion by friends, and crown of thorns pierce Him, yet He didn't let it stop Him from fulfilling His mission. He carried through until the end. Because of that, the greatest miracle in the history of mankind was able to occur that fateful Sunday 2,000 years ago.

"Please do not miss this opportunity to be one with Christ. Make this week different by your prayer and attention to God even in your own home. Make this week a holy one, not only in name, but in God's grace in your lives."

Please note there is no Mass on Tuesday or Thursday this week. Following our Wednesday service, we will welcome you back to Mass on Tuesday, April 19th.

God Bless,
Campus Ministry

Questions for Reflection During Holy Week

- Holy Thursday

- Jesus gives us a new commandment – “love one another as I have loved you” – and an example of a leader who serves. This radical example of service goes beyond what was necessary. How might I ‘wash the feet’ of others in the spirit of Jesus’ humility & compassion, even if it means making sacrifices or going beyond my comfort zone?

- Good Friday

- Has a cross you have had to take up been the means of new life and resurrection?

- Holy Saturday

- We contemplate Jesus resting in the tomb. How can we meditate on his suffering and death, and his descent into hell, among the dead? In prayer and fasting, peace and quiet, we await his Resurrection.

- Easter Sunday

- How can I live in accordance with what I profess in the renewal of baptismal promises? (Find Renewal of Baptismal Promises here)
